TCC's students and faculty got together one Saturday last fall for probably the most successful happening of the year: the fall picnic.

Everybody had lots of food, beer, and fun. The whole day was topped off with the return of Boulderino as the sophomores easily handled the freshmen to earn the right to have their accomplishment engraved in the stone outside building 16.

Building 21 is a theatre in disguise! The productions that were held this year were: "BUS STOP" by William Inge, and "LILIOM" by Ferenc Molnar. "OLIVER" by Lionel Bart, was held at Thornton High School.

Cherie (Linda Invergo) and Bo Decker (Time Alexander) go over their love scene during rehearsals.

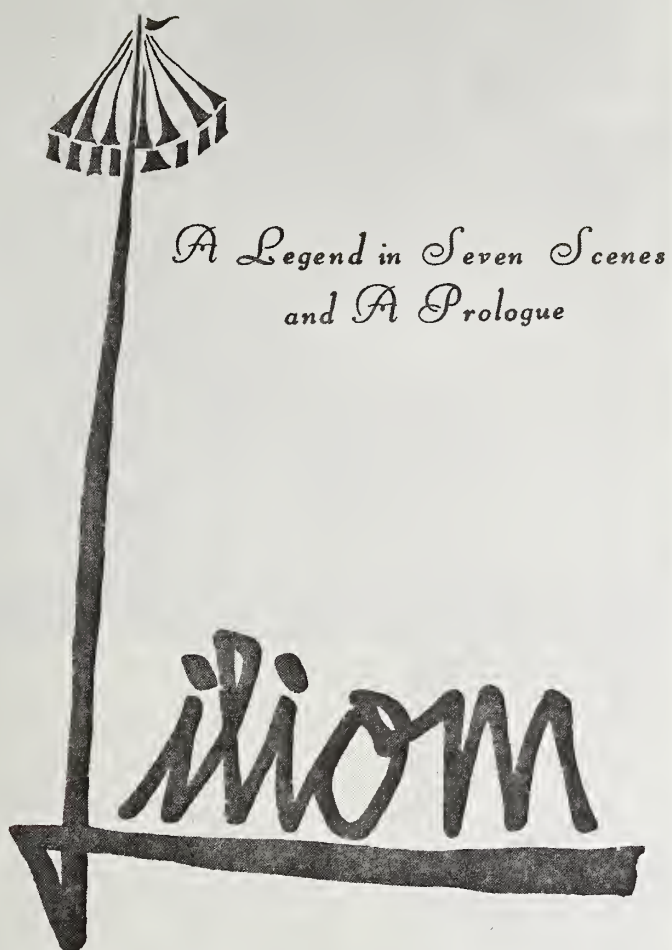

OLIVER!

Mrs. Corney (Jeanette Gibson) assumes a suitable poise for her personality.

A Legend in Seven Scenes and A Prologue

Marie (Karla Korff) and Julie (Debbie Hinko) are supposedly being taught a lesson by Mrs. Muskat (Mary Jane Vreeman).

Mrs. Muskat (Mary Jane Vreeman) tells Liliom (Nick Lucko) he can consider himself discharged.

Mother Hollunder (Nancy Guzan) nags to Marie (Karla Korff) and Julie (Debbie Hinko) about Liliom.

Mrs. Muskat (Mary Jane Vreeman) asks Liliom (Nick Lucko) to come back to the Carousel for her own reasons!

Julie (Dorothy Vermillion) comforts Louise (Gloria Hojnacki) after shes' been slapped by Liliom.

Everyday life
at TCC

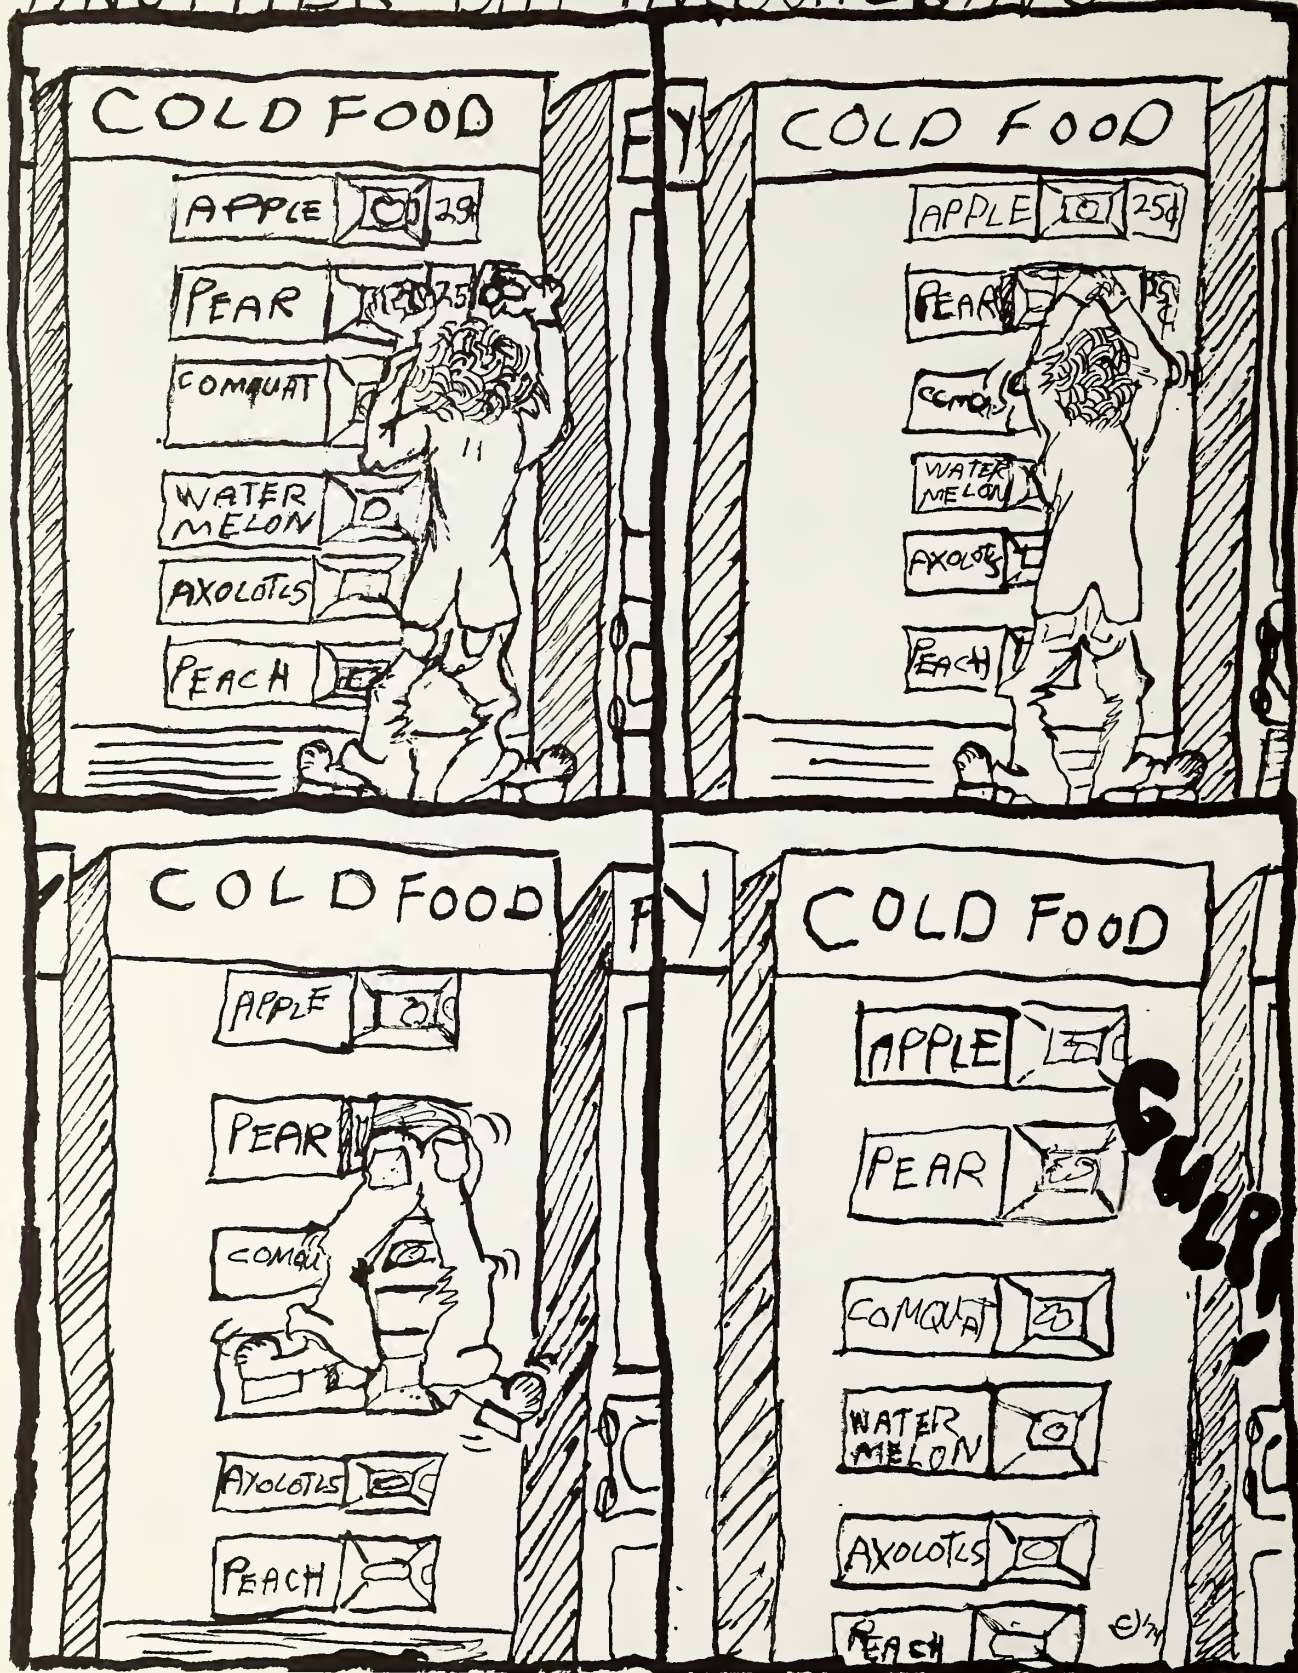

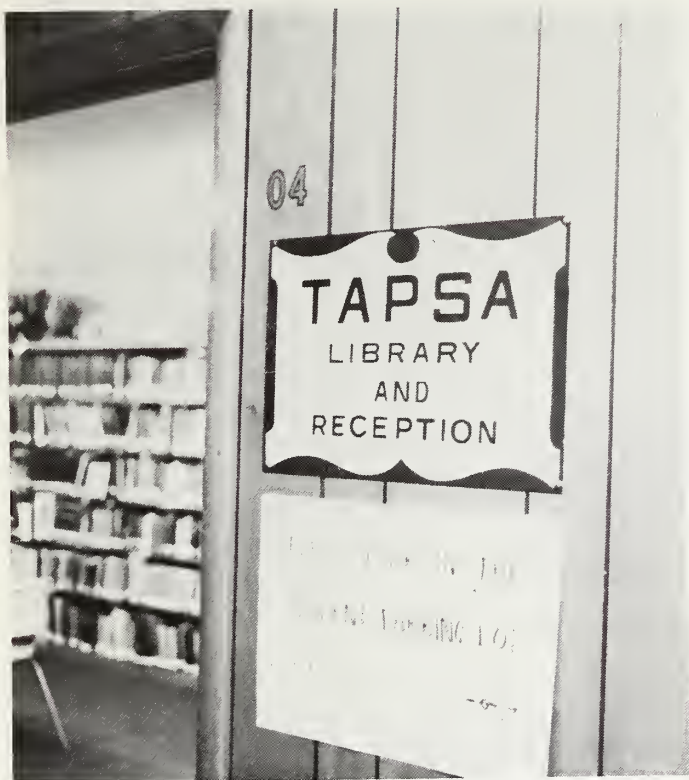

ANOTHER DAY IN BUILDING 16

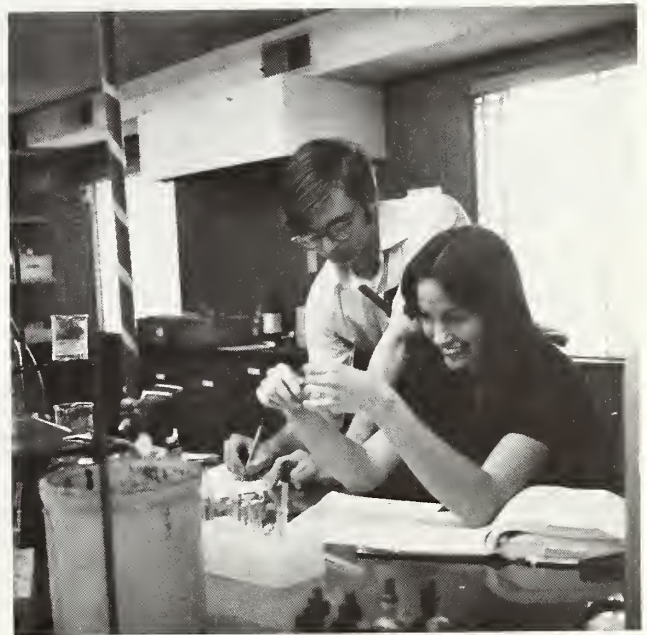

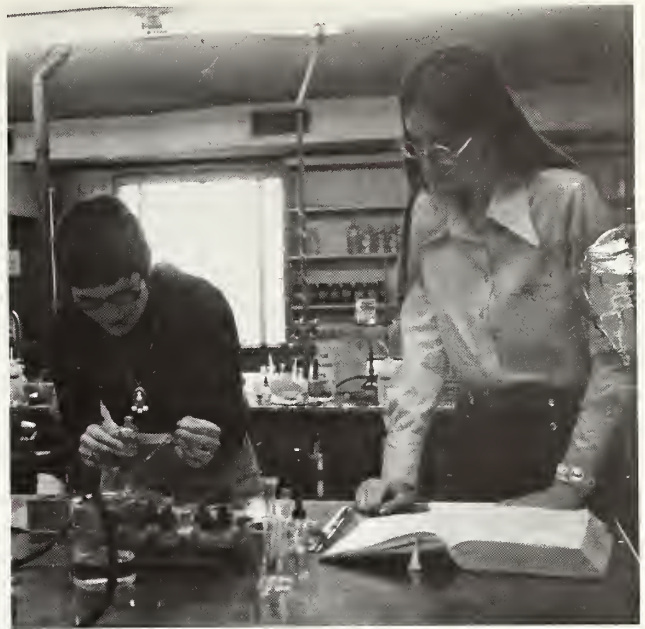

Places, meant to be for those who need their help. Tapsa, bookstore, library, studying.

Art an expression of hate, love, and man.

Life Sciences— Chemistry, biology, germs, bugs, test tubes.

The future T.C.C.

is almost here!

College life—being with people, enjoying food, music, cards.

For class or just fun, there's always time for some sports.

Interim—here today and maybe tomorrow
